Dear Indiethon Community,

We have some news to share regarding thedmpanda, one of the organizers of Indiethon. Due to severe and escalating events in thedmpanda's life, they have decided to resign as both a staff member and as Vice President of Indiethon Inc. We thank them for their continued support for Indiethon and wish them the best going forward. To respect Panda's privacy, we ask that you refrain from reaching out to them privately regarding the issue.

Because of this revelation, the staff team and I have decided to cancel the upcoming Fall Fables event. This decision was not taken lightly. We understand that this decision might upset some of you, however we think that this will be in everyone's best interest for the time being.

The staff team will be using this time to reflect on our past progress and come up with ways to streamline the organization process to improve our events. We look forward to welcoming back runners, volunteers and our viewers and continuing to raise money for amazing causes soon.

Best,
- nicnacnic
